

Chiara Farrell

Chiara is a generational local and draws on a diverse business background.

Chiara has completed her AICD Company Directors course and contributes a best practice knowledge of enhancing member experience, supporting team development and growth of employees.

Chris Bazley

An experienced director with strong governance and financial background, AICD qualified.

Chris enjoys seeing a successful business provide the best products and personal support to its customers and members.

Community minded and always keen to listen to the needs of those that he represents.

